Kyleigh Wynn, freshman, Eastman, GA. Survival Daze is a fun way of showing new students around Valdosta and the many churches we can attend and where we can serve. The BCM doesn't replace the church, it helps you find a church family to belong to. Survival Daze was a great way to meet other Christian students. I hope to see you there!

Jacob Paige, freshman, Rydal GA. My main priority in joining the BCM was to find a solid home church that provided the support I would need to survive my college life. Survival Daze definitely helped with that! The opportunity to meet like-minded Christian friends was a great blessing and I plan to keep them close for a long time.

Mikayla Register, transfer, Tallahassee, FL. Being a transfer, Survival Daze was the event that I needed to find my place at the BCM. From that first night I was able to make friends that I will have for a lifetime. Survival Daze is a time in which you not only grow closer to the new Christians around you but you also have a ton of fun at the same time!
