

FAQS

Q. What is Survival Daze?

A. Survival Daze, in its 24th year, is sponsored by the Baptist Collegiate Ministry (BCM). Survival Daze is an in-town weekend retreat for freshmen and transfer students. Its purpose is to introduce new students to VSU, BCM, local churches, and the Valdosta area. Students involved come from many different backgrounds and churches. BCM is truly open to ALL STUDENTS.

Q. What if I am unable to attend all of the Survival Daze sessions?

A. We do hope you will be able to attend all of the sessions. However, we realize that you may have to miss some.

Q. May I invite other students to attend with me?

A. Certainly! BRING FRIENDS! We are counting on you to help other students, especially those who do not receive a brochure or see the website.

Q. How do I get there?

A. Just come on over to the Baptist Student Center. We're located on Oak Street behind Palms dining hall. Off campus students: Park behind the BCM in our parking lot. It is located directly behind our center at 1522 North Oak Street. Come on in!

Q. When is the registration deadline?

A. We would like to have all students registered by Wednesday, August 21st. Late registration is $30. It's never too late to sign up for DAZE!

Q. What do I need to bring to DAZE?

A. Your Bible, sleeping bag or sheet and blanket, pillow, toiletries, casual clothing, church clothes for Sunday, play clothes that can get dirty, and a towel.

What We Will Be Doing:

Friday August 23rd

- ♦ Registration begins (4:00 PM) at BCM (on Oak Street across from Palms)
- ♦ Meals provided by local churches
- ♦ Worship, games, family groups
- ♦ Spend the night in older students' homes (bring your sleeping bag)

Saturday August 24th

- ♦ More food, fun and fellowship
- ♦ Afternoon free time
- ♦ More Worship
- ♦ Return to host homes for the night

Sunday August 25h

- ♦ Attend Church and eat lunch with your family group.
